Welcome to

St. John the Baptist Catholic Church

We are a community where we welcome all as members of the Body of Christ.

We are welcoming, faithful, passionate, joyful, authentic, sacramental, loving and charitable.

Today's Readings

Ez 18:25-28 / Ps 25:4-5, 6-7, 8-9 [6a] / Phil 2:1-11 or 2:1-5 / Mt 21:28-32

"The man came to the other son and gave the same order. He said in reply,

'Yes, sir,' but did not go."

(Mt 21:30)

Gospel Meditation

What prompts you to make the decisions you make? When confronted with a decision, whether one that is more trivial and mundane or one that is more significant and profound, we rely on guidance. That guidance can be the result of impulse and passion or the fruit of the interior voice of conscience. Decisions made on impulse and passion can be misguided and erroneous. Decisions based on conscience, or the moral voice within, will reflect the depth and maturity of our soul work. A more contemplative soul will make more contemplative decisions. A less developed conscience will make decisions based on the individual's level of development.

Conversion and a change of heart are at the core of Jesus' message precisely because of this reality. We are works in progress. For the person on fire with the Holy Spirit and centered on God, life reflects an ever-deepening awareness and heightened sense of God's presence and a greater willingness to do God's will. What is happening internally is validated by what is witnessed externally. The hypocrite is the one who says yes when they really mean no. From the start, they had no desire to do the virtuous act but wanted to outwardly appear as if they did.

Where are you on the road of integrity? Honesty is all that is required. God is good with that. It is okay to struggle with our decisions and wrestle with ourselves. Consciences on the path to maturity and greater depth are not always going to know what action is immediately best. We may, at first, say no to what we know is right and, after prayerful reflection and thought, come around to doing it. Conversion happens when our no changes to yes, regardless of how sinful or out of sync we may be at the time. God is anxious to welcome us to Himself. But we cannot embrace Him unless we want to. Learning to orient our gift of free will to what is of divine origin, right, and best is a discipline we must always tweak and perfect.

Scripture Reflections

First Reading

The prophet Ezekiel warned that even the just at times turn away from justice. But the just are saved through repentance. How do you turn away from your sin?

Second Reading

Paul presents in Philippians one of the Church's earliest Christological hymns, emphasizing the humility of Christ. Who do you see as a model of humility in your life?

Gospel Reading

In a tense exchange between Jesus and the religious leaders of Jerusalem, those on the margins of society are held in higher regard by Jesus because of their repentance. What do you think motivates anyone to repent?

The Gospel of Matthew

An Online 15-Segment Zoom Series
Presented by Deacon Jim McFadden

October 6, Tuesday, 7 pm

Contact: Theresa Grant
tgrant203@aol.com

Session 5: Jesus the Teacher: the Sermon of the Mount (part 1)

Matthew has introduced Jesus as the New Moses in the Infancy Narratives, as the Son of David, and as the Son of God in the Baptism of Jesus. And, he described the intense preparation Jesus underwent in the Temptation. With all that behind us, Matthew is going to focus on Jesus the Teacher. All of Jesus' teachings were about proclaiming the Kingdom of Heaven. Now people want to know the nature of this Kingdom; so, they gather around Jesus at the Mount to hear his Sermon, which will contain his programmatic teachings.

To register for the series, please email Theresa Grant. You will receive an email prior to the scheduled session with the Zoom online link & instructions. Please check your spam/junk mail in case you do not receive the email in your inbox.

Inspiration for the Week

When making decisions, we often struggle with what voice to follow. We acknowledge the presence of God, the existence of the Trinity, the priority of the Gospel, and the virtues and values they embody. Yet, even with all of that truth, knowledge, and tradition behind us, we think we know better. When confronted with a decision, we easily dismiss what we know we ought and need to do and entertain responses that stem from lesser desires and wants. We eventually may come around and realize that what God asks us to do is what we need to do, even if it wasn't our original intention. God accepts our return to Him with joy. What becomes dishonest is deceiving ourselves, God, and others by originally saying yes to what we know we need (and are asked to do) and willfully doing something else. That is blatant hypocrisy.

Contact: Joanne, 916-607-2228

Please come and pray for life! This campaign has successfully saved thousands of babies all over the country. Their moms are given support throughout with various community resources. Participation is easy, bring a chair and pray! It's been proven that many couples change their minds when they see people praying in front of the clinic.

St. Johns is getting carpools together to go on Fridays from 11am-1pm, meeting at St. Johns at 10:30am. Or leaving St. Johns after school with Kathy on Wednesday. Call or text Kathy at 916-337-6824 or Joanne at 916-607-2228.

Church Hours

Monday - Friday

The church will remain open for those who would like to pray before the Blessed Sacrament from 8am-4:30pm.

Saturday - Sunday

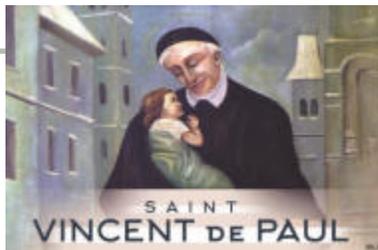

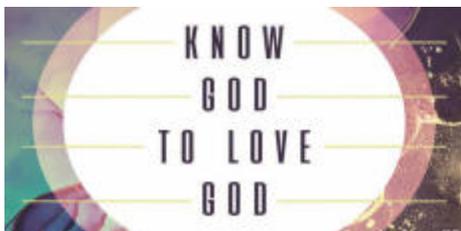

On the weekends, the church will be open from 7am-6pm.

Please keep in mind your minimum 6ft "social distancing"

Confession

Saturdays: 3 - 4:30 pm
and by appointment

Please note confessions at this time will still be offered but not in the confessional. We will be doing a face to face format in a larger setting in order to maintain the recommended minimum 6ft "social distancing."

5 Things You Need to Know About Archangels

Aleteia.org

- They are the second lowest “rank” of angels. This hierarchy is based on nine names of ranks of angels that are found in the Bible.
- They are entrusted with delivering important messages to humans. The lowest ranks of angels are the ones who communicate or interact with us.
- They do not have wings, bodies or swords. Unlike us, angels are pure spirits and do not possess anything material.
- They can protect us from evil. St. Michael and the heavenly host has the power to expel Satan from a place.
- Archangels still exist today. God created their immortal spirits and they will never cease existing for all eternity.

O Jesus, our most holy Redeemer, we ask you to bless our home, our family, our household.

Preserve us from all evil.

St. Michael, defend us against all the wicked wiles of hell.

St. Gabriel, obtain for us wisdom that we may understand the holy will of God.

St. Raphael, preserve us from ill health and all danger to life.

Holy guardian angels, keep us day and night in the way to salvation. Amen.

The Gift of Our Guardian Angels

It’s good to know we’re not alone. This October 2nd we celebrate the feast of our guardian angels. This ancient belief has roots in Scripture. In Matthew’s Gospel, Jesus implies the special guiding care of the angels. “See that you do not despise one of these little ones, for I say to you that their angels in heaven always look upon the face of my heavenly Father” (Matthew 18:10). Our guardian angels are given to us by God to protect and watch over us from the moment of our conception until the hour of death. Let’s pray together to our own heavenly help:

*Angel of God, my guardian dear,
to whom God’s love commits me here,
ever this day be at my side to light, to guard,
to rule, and to guide.*

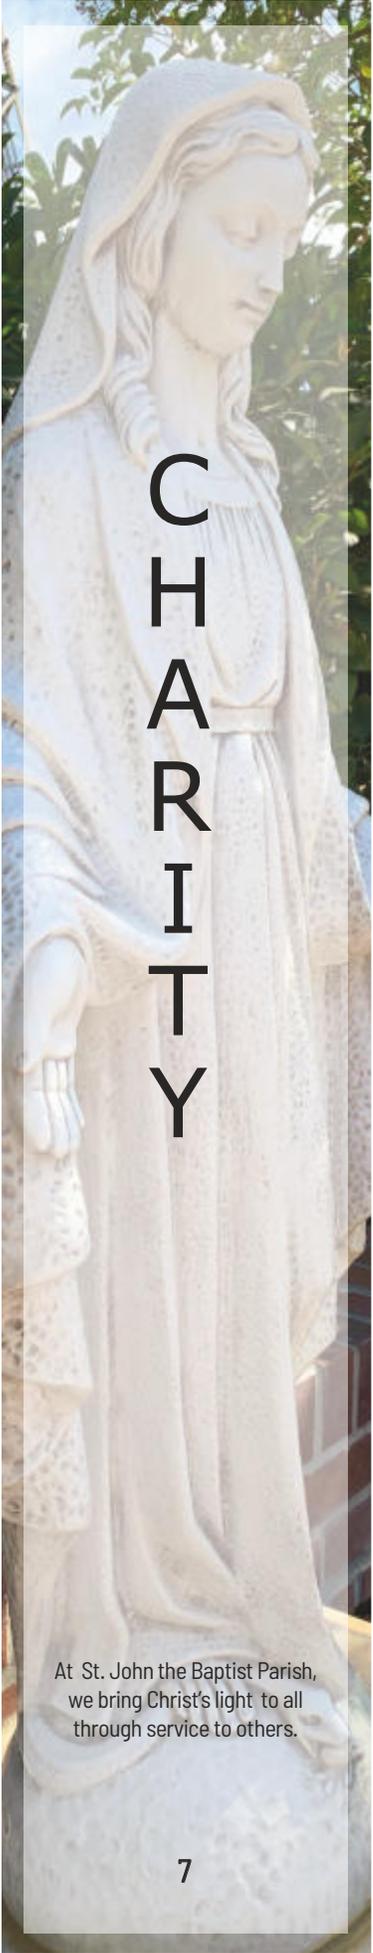

Amen

Is It the Thought That Counts?

I can remember times when I received a gift that I would not have chosen for myself. At those times I certainly thought to myself that “it was the thought that counts.” I was happy that the gift-giver thought of me at all. Then there have been times when my children have not given me a gift and then chose to tell me all about what they were going to give me. They would then follow it up by saying, “it was the thought that really counts.” Really!?! I don’t think so. I could think of sending my wife on a cruise, but that is not in any way the same as going on the cruise. I think there are times when all of us think we are more generous than we are, simply because we were thinking about being generous.

This way of thinking can be dangerous. Jesus teaches us to say what we mean and mean what we say. The intentionality of our actions is important, but intentionality without action is meaningless. How we act and what we give serves as evidence of our intentions and indicates where our heart truly lies. If we fool ourselves into thinking we are someone we are not, it can become difficult to see the truth. We need to look for the fruit in our lives. We need to make sure our desires and thoughts are moving us to act. You know that other saying about intentions, don’t you? Don’t pave the road to a place no one wants to end up with your intentions. Instead, let your intentions and actions lead others to another place where Jesus can be found.

CHARITY

At St. John the Baptist Parish, we bring Christ's light to all through service to others.

2nd Collection

This weekend our 2nd collection will be for the Pontifical Good Friday Collection (postponed from April due to COVID-19). Pope Francis has asked that we support this collection which helps Christians in the Holy Land. This collection:

- Helps the church minister in parishes, provide Catholic schools and offer religious education.
- Helps to preserve the sacred shrines.
- In these times of crisis, it provides humanitarian aid to refugees.

When you contribute to the Pontifical Good Friday Collection, you become an instrument of peace and join with Catholics around the world in solidarity with the Church in the Holy Land.

PLEASE BE GENEROUS! For more information about Christians in the Holy Land, visit www.myfranciscan.org/good-friday.

Last weekend our 2nd collection was for the Diocesan Collection for Priests Retirement. Together we collected $885.

Next weekend our 2nd collection will be for our RE Program and SJND.

Please Consider Online Giving Our Parish Is Grateful for Your Continued Support folsomcatholic.org/onlinegiving

Please remember although the services are limited for the time being, parish operations continue; bills are to be paid, staff need to be given their salaries, facilities' maintenance are needed. Your weekly envelopes can be mailed to the parish office or use the online giving.

With online giving you can give a single donation or recurring donations to our church, specific parish ministries, or Diocesan appeals, etc. Instructions on how to fill out the form are available on the online giving page.

Sister Nora's Place

Contact: Cathy

916-353-0688

St. Johns has been participating by providing a full meal the first Wednesday of each month for 16 women. We are in need of 4 more volunteers to complete our mission of a once a year commitment. The meal consists of a main course (homemade or bought), salad or vegetable, fruit, starch or rolls, desert and drinks. These ladies even like pizza night! Please help if you can. You may even double up with someone. The meal is then dropped off at their location (no contact delivery). Delivery drivers also needed. Call Joanne Dudgeon 916-607-2228 or Cathy for details.

A Little About Sister Nora's Place

Sister Nora's Place is the only overnight shelter at Loaves and Fishes. It is a 16 bed shelter to help chronically homeless, mentally ill, physically abused women learn to establish mental and physical wellness. The residents each have their own cubicle that includes a twin bed and a locking closet for their possessions. They support one another as a community. Every evening they share dinner together as a family with the generous meals provided by treasured volunteers. During the week they participate in several groups offered by the Loaves and Fishes Genesis Counseling Program. There are several groups ranging from Meditation, 12 Step/NA meetings, Daily Reflections, Life skills, and Medication support meetings. Many of the residents have learned to manage their illnesses and have become volunteers in other Loaves and Fishes programs. Some have started receiving SSI, and others have found employment. Stable affordable housing continues to be a problem.

Our parish is enriched with many ministries, please consider learning about and engaging in one or more of our ministries. Call the contact listed or see a Minister of Hospitality after Mass.

PRAY FOR CALIFORNIA

Almighty God,
 We pray that through the intercession of your beloved, Saint Florian, those courageous men and women fighting fire in California will be protected and strengthened by Your providence. Bring consolation to those who have lost loved ones, dwellings, and their sense of security. May they find a home in your gracious love and a hope in the generous works of your servants here on earth. Amen.

Fire Assistance Fund 2020

In light of the fires burning in counties throughout the Diocese, Bishop Jaime Soto has asked the faithful of the Diocese of Sacramento to pray for all those affected, especially the residents who have been displaced, lost their residences or evacuated. Ask for God's protection upon the firefighters and emergency personnel. Pray for those who have died and all those suffering loss during this catastrophic time.

Catholic Charities of Yolo Solano, Northern Valley Catholic Social Service (NVCSS) and the St. Vincent de Paul Society are working together with local community partners to help those in need.

Parishioners wishing to donate money to assist those in need may do so in the following ways:
