Welcome to

St. John the Baptist Catholic Church

We are a community where we welcome all as members of the Body of Christ.

We are welcoming, faithful, passionate, joyful, authentic,
sacramental, loving and charitable.

Today's Readings

Wis 11:22-12:2 / Ps 145:1-2, 8-9, 10-11, 13, 14 / 2 Thes 1:11-2:2 / Lk 19:1-10

When he reached the place, Jesus looked up and said, "Zacchaeus, come down quickly, for today I must stay at your house." And he came down quickly and received him with joy. When they all saw this, they began to grumble, saying, "He has gone to stay at the house of a sinner." - Lk 19:5-7

Gospel Meditation

Christ loves us first. So much of the Christian life is as simple as that. Today's Gospel is a prime example! "Now a man there named Zacchaeus, who was a chief tax collector and also a wealthy man ... was seeking to see who Jesus was." We may have gotten used to the story of Zacchaeus, this short, seemingly innocent man who climbs a sycamore tree in his desperate desire to see Jesus. But this colorful, children's Bible illustration isn't what the gathering crowd would have seen. They would have seen the white collar criminal. Tax collectors were notorious for extortion. They were collaborators with the oppressive Roman overlords, overcharging for taxes and skimming a cut off the top. And how does Jesus respond to this man?

"Come down quickly," Jesus says, "for today I must stay at your house." If you had been there, would you have believed it? No doubt there were other disciples in the city or, at the very least, kind, generous, and just people. "Good" people. But those aren't the people Jesus chooses to share a meal with. Christ loves us first. He chooses Zacchaeus even before the man makes a public profession of his repentance.

"The Son of Man has come to seek and to save what was lost." We may not be tax collectors and extortionists — I hope not! — but we all have elements of our lives that are lost. We have wounds from childhood, unresolved anxieties or attachments, daily fears. No matter how "put together" we are, we all have our lost moments. Some days, it may feel like we can't see over the ways they crowd our inner life. Today's Gospel invites us to do something a little strange. Don't let your flaws, failures, or hang-ups prevent you from seeing Jesus. Take a deep breath. Go climb a tree, because Jesus is passing by. And he wants to stay in your heart today.

Scripture Reflections

First Reading

The Jewish wisdom writer speaks of God's unconditional love for us as he patiently awaits us to repent from our sins. How do you think repentance draws someone closer to God?

Second Reading

Paul opens his second letter to the Christians in the city of Thessalonica with a warning not to be deceived by those attempting to confuse believers. How do we best handle those today who distort our faith?

Gospel Reading

In today's Gospel reading, Jesus affirms Zacchaeus, a rich chief tax collector, for having the proper attitude toward wealth. Why do you think excessive wealth often separates us from God and others?

At St. John the Baptist Parish,
we welcome all
as members of the Body of Christ.

November Special Mass Schedule

November 11, Monday, Veteran's Day

Only one Mass will be celebrated on this holiday. It is at 8:15 am at the Historic Church on Sibley / Natoma Sts.

November 16, Saturday

Morning Mass Cancelled

Family not coming for Thanksgiving, you can't go see them, we have the answer. Come join your Parish family for an early Thanksgiving Dinner put on by the Knights of Columbus. Dinner with all the traditional fixings. No cost to those attending. All are welcome. Let John know if you are attending. If you can't make it to the dinner and would like a Thanksgiving dinner delivered to you, please call and let us know. Any donations received will be used to support the Christian Communities in the Middle East.

WINGS Christmas Brunch

December 7, Saturday

9:30 - 11:30 am, Gallagher Hall

Tickets $20 per person

Contact: Sue Collins

916-337-6237

Join us for our 15th Annual Women's Christmas Brunch. Come meet and socialize with other women from our parish. If you would like to host a uniquely Christmas decorated table contact Sue. Guest speaker is our pastor, Fr. Renier! Proceeds will go to our Pastoral Care & the Gabriel Project Ministries. We will also collect canned food for St. Vincent de Paul. There is assigned seating so get your tickets early! Tickets go on sell after all Masses, November 9/10 and 16/17.

Notes of Gratitude!

Thank You...

I want to say 'thank you' to individuals and families who generously responded towards the "LED" lights appeal last August. We were able to successfully change the lights in the Church building into energy efficient bulbs because of your kindness. We spent $10,919. The church's interior is brighter but consumes less energy. Once again, on behalf of Fr. Cleetus and Fr. Haran, sincerely thank you.

To God be the glory!

Fr. Renier

Dear "BAKERS" & "BUYERS"

From our Parish!

With Great Praise and

Thanksgiving to our Lord!

We, our Pastoral Care Ministry want to say; thank you very much for your generosity and kindness for donating your talent and wonderful baked goods which we are absolutely sure you baked with "Great Heart & Love"! You helped make our "Bake Sale" very much successful!

Thank you,

Candice Ralston and Karis Crain

A heartfelt THANK YOU to Carol Stephenson, Lisa Armenta and their families, the Family Fellowship Ministry, the volunteers and participants of our All Hallows Celebration & Trunk and Treat. You made it happen! The kids (and adults too) definitely enjoyed the pumpkin and cookie decorating, the pizza and popcorn. Thanks to all who took the time to bring their cars with their wonderful decorations and treats. Everyone enjoyed going back and forth looking at the cars! The evening was definitely a fun, family and parish bonding event for all.

Pray for the dead throughout the year.

Here on earth, we can pray for the souls in Purgatory. One way is to request a Mass for the intention of a specific loved one. We can also remember the departed in our daily prayers. Just as we have special intentions for family and friends here on earth, we can pray for those who have died. It's also a good act of Christian charity to pray for the forgotten, those who have no one else to pray for them. God knows who they are!

At St. John the Baptist Parish, time in conversation with our Lord is at the center of our lives.

Yes, we should pray from home. And yes, we should pray at church. But if we want to serve mothers in crisis, we need to go where they are. It's the presence and peaceful witness of Christians in the public square that have led more than 16,000 moms to turn away from abortion at the very last moment, and choose life. Showing up matters. Please help! Carpools from St. John's available on Wednesdays. Call Joanne 916-607-2228 for more information.

A Journey Through the Parables, Part 1

November 4, Monday, 7 pm
Gallagher Hall - St. John Paul II Room
Deacon Jim McFadden
macfam500@att.net

Join Deacon Jim McFadden for the last in this 5-part faith-sharing experience as we reflect upon the universal truths of the Kingdom of God.

Topic 5: Two Men Went up to the Temple
This parable is addressed to those who believe in their own self-righteousness while holding others in contempt. The Pharisee sees no need for God's free gift of justification because his whole prayer is centered upon himself and his accomplishments—a paragon of the "self-made man." He seems to need nothing from God, whereas the tax collector recognizes who he is (a sinner) in relationship to God and that any good comes from God's mercy.

Inspiration of the Week

Imagine God coming to you at this very moment saying, "Today I must stay at your house!" How do you react when you hear those words? God must stay at your house. There is no time to clean or organize things or make any preparations. There is no time to backtrack and catch up on things that may have slipped by during the week. God is coming and doesn't care how things look! God just wants to spend time with you. God's mercy is very wide. It is so wide that we sometimes have a difficulty accepting just how unconditional and free it really is. We may find ourselves thinking that there must be some folks who don't deserve it or aren't worthy. All are worthy. The book of Wisdom tells us, "But you have mercy on all and you overlook people's sins that they may repent." There is no way around it: God must offer mercy. We are lost and we desperately need it.

At St. John the Baptist Parish,
we bring Christ's light to all through service to others.

Second Collection

This weekend our second collection is for SJND and the RE program.

Offering for Oct 26/Oct 27 is $21,512
On-line giving is not included

The Enthusiastic Steward

Have you ever been at a concert and rushed the stage to get closer to your favorite act? Has your favorite sports team won a championship, and you just wanted to celebrate for hours? For those of us who are parents, have you ever gone to great lengths to get the perfect photo at a first Communion, graduation, or some other ceremony in which your child was involved?

When moments in our life are filled with enthusiasm, we can find ourselves overwhelmed and doing things we might not normally do. I bet Zacchaeus didn't have a regular habit of climbing trees. However, he climbed one so he could see Jesus more clearly. His enthusiasm led him up a tree, an action he probably would not normally do.

Following Jesus Christ is not easy in this world of ours. Trying to do it without feeling any enthusiasm makes it doubly difficult. Enthusiasm is something that can be grown, but we must be the ones who foster it. When we see the fruits of our stewardship, enthusiasm grows. When we spend time in prayer and in God's Word getting to know Jesus better, enthusiasm grows. When we work to make Jesus the most important person in our life, enthusiasm grows. If we find ourselves too often with our feet on the ground and growing in apathy, perhaps it is time to do what it takes to bring on that desire to climb a tree.

— Tracy Earl Welliver

Sharing the Gospel

Zacchaeus had gotten very rich by taking money from his neighbors, so nobody liked him. He was very lonely and sad. When Jesus talked to him, Zacchaeus felt special. When Jesus ate dinner with Zacchaeus, Jesus showed that he was a real friend. When Zacchaeus felt God's love, he was truly happy for the first time. Jesus gave him what he really wanted – friendship – so he gave extra money back to his neighbors.

Mission for the Week

Read today's Gospel with your family. Write down three things you can do each day to spend more time with Jesus as your friend.

Puzzle

I want to stay with you today.

Prayer

Dear God, help me to see that real happiness comes from loving Jesus, not money.

"Let the little children come to me, and do not hinder them, for the kingdom of God belongs to such as these."

Coats for Kids & Food for Families Program

October 27 - January 5, 2020

Contact: SK Percy Park, 916-983-3368 or GK Dick Phelan, 916-221-0596

The goal of the Coats for Kids program is to ensure that no child in North America goes without a coat during the winter season.

How You Can Help

You can donate "new" or "gently used" children's winter coats. Please wash all "gently used" coats prior to donating. Winter accessories like gloves, mittens, scarves, beanies, hats, heavy socks and sleeping bags are also accepted. All of our "coats", "accessories" and "sleeping bags" will be donated to "Helping Hands" (St. Vincent de Paul) who will pass them onto or any organization, family and/or individuals who have need of them. We also accept coats, jackets, winter accessories and sleeping bags for teen's and adults.

The goal of Food for Families is to ensure that as few as possible go to bed hungry each night. The Knights of Columbus are committed to helping end hunger through this program. Council and parish families will raise funds to support their local food pantries, food banks and soup kitchens.

What are the most requested food items?

- Canned meats like tuna, chicken, turkey, ham, stew and chili
- Canned vegetables
- Pasta & pasta sauce,
- Beans, Rice
- Healthy cereals, Peanut Butter
- Baby food & baby formula

Coats & Food Drop Off Locations:

- A Cart and/ or Barrel in the Church Vestibule before, during and after "all" masses on Saturday and Sunday.
- Helping Hands - MWF, 9:00 am to 12 Noon.
- Parish Office during business hours from 10:00 am to 2:00 pm (916)985-2065

Brothers and Sir Knights, weekly help is needed during this collection period to move the items collected in the Parish Bride's Room to the Helping Hands building on MWF, 9:00am - Noon. Helping Hands could really use our help. Please contact the Parish Office and/or brother's John Knight at jknight3199@sbcglobal.net and John Boehm at 916brookmar@sbcglobal.net to be able to access the Parish Bride's Room.
