Welcome to

St. John the Baptist Catholic Church

We are a community where we welcome all as members of the Body of Christ.

We are welcoming, faithful, passionate, joyful, authentic,
sacramental, loving and charitable.

Today's Readings

Is 45:1, 4-6 / Ps 96:1, 3, 4-5, 7-8, 9-10 [7b] / 1 Thes 1:1-5b / Mt 22:15-21

"Knowing their malice, Jesus said, "Why are you testing me, you hypocrites? " (Mt 22:18)

Gospel Meditation

Nobody enjoys paying taxes. Despite our displeasure in being forced to do so, we also realize that the monies generated from taxes allows governments to provide essential services for its people. Corruption really gets our goat, however. When we witness malfeasance, overspending, irresponsibility, and dishonesty in governmental spending, the grave injustices make an already unpleasant and arduous task even more difficult. The inappropriate distribution and use of hard-earned monies can leave a person quite angry and disconnected. It's bad enough the government wants something from me, now God does, too?

God is not concerned necessarily with our money, although its proper use does factor into our faith life. As the payment of secular taxes speaks of our allegiance to the government, our return to God speaks of our allegiance to God. All of creation, even the entire universe, is fashioned in the image and likeness of God. What speaks to God and has meaning and relevance to him? All of creation and indeed our very selves! God delights in us and when we present ourselves back to him, he delights even more! As the payment of secular taxes is designed to secure the equitable distribution of goods and services to all people, so is our return of ourselves to God in gratitude meant to advance God's kingdom here on earth.

When our exclusive and sincere allegiance is given to God, God can use us to set things right and straight again. The wounds of sin distort our relationship and disorder our world. By giving ourselves and all of creation back to God in gratitude, we acknowledge the proper Creator and Author of life for who He is and devote our labors exclusively to God's kingdom and the justice, peace, or order God envisions. In giving back to God all that belongs to God, we set the axis of our lives correctly and put our priorities in proper order. All of our relationships, especially with God, our brothers and sisters, and all of creation are perceived more clearly as they really are. Using, accumulating, wasting, exploiting, hoarding, and self-preservation are no longer necessary.

Scripture Reflections

First Reading

Cyrus was king of the mighty Persian Empire (559-529 BC) while Israel was exiled in Babylon. The prophet Isaiah revealed God would use Cyrus to free Israel from captivity.

What lesson do you think Israel was supposed to learn from this revelation?

Second Reading

In his opening remarks in First Thessalonians, Paul speaks of the power and conviction with which he preached the gospel to them. How do you show the conviction of your faith?

Gospel

The religious leaders in Jerusalem were unable to trap Jesus with a seemingly trick question.

How do you respond to non-believers who try to challenge or trick you in matters of your beliefs?

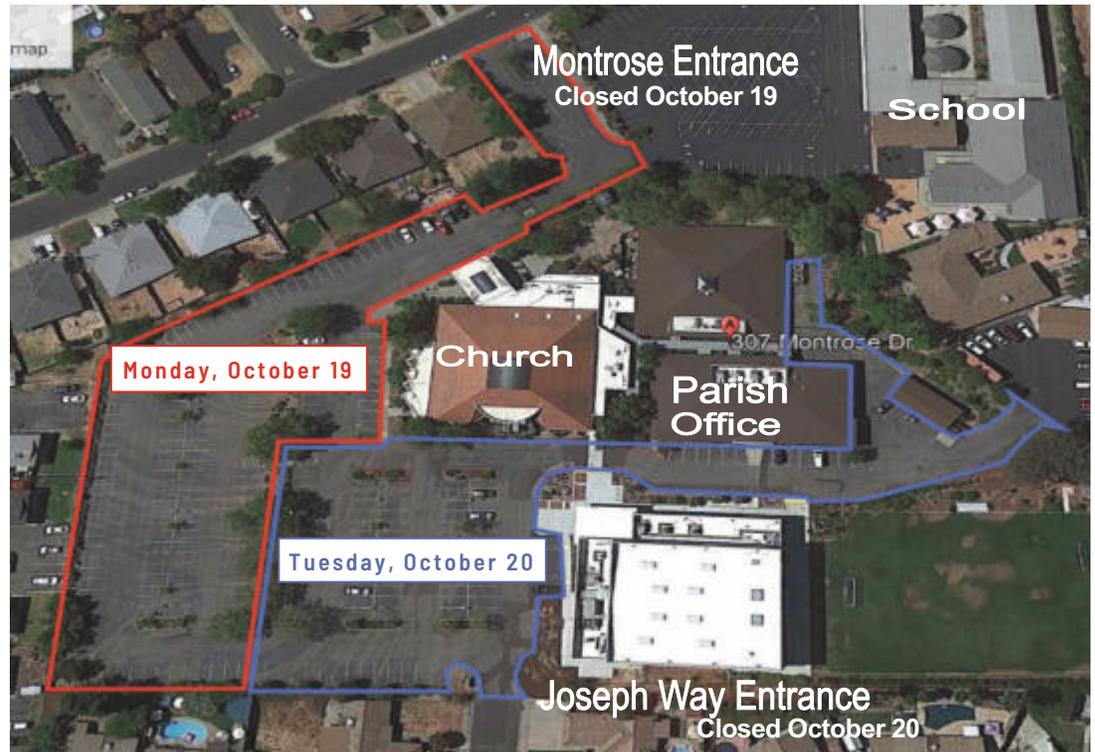

At St. John the Baptist Parish,
we welcome all
as members of the Body of Christ.

Parking Lot Resealing

October 19 & 20

Our parking lots will be resealed on the dates noted and will not be accessible on those days. Please use the appropriate entrance.

Advertise in the Bulletin!

Contact: Gina Shaughnessy
(952) 356-6488,
gshaughnessy@4LPi.com

Gina Shaughnessy, our parish representative from LPi, is working on setting up the advertising for our bulletin for the upcoming year. Given the COVID-19 situation, she is working on the ads remotely. We hope that parishioners who have a business will consider sponsoring an ad on the back of the bulletin, since the revenue from the ads is what makes the bulletin possible, at no cost to the parish. Also, if you know of any other business in the community that would like to support the parish, please let them know about this opportunity. Advertisements can be purchased for a business, family, or a sponsorship ad can be purchased supporting community service organizations such as emergency pregnancy counseling, the local food shelf, etc. As you might imagine, we could use some extra support this year, as many businesses have suffered as a result of COVID-19, and other unforeseen events this year. Please give these ideas some thought. We need and appreciate your help! If you are interested in getting more information, please contact Gina.

Theology of the Body and How to Introduce it to Young People

October 20 & 22 in English or October 27 & 29 in Spanish
from 7-8:30pm
Livestreamed at www.scd.org/OYYA-TOB

In today's culture, teaching the purpose of our bodies, sexuality, life and love can be a challenge. The beauty of Theology of the Body is designed to meet that challenge. It provides a counter-cultural, yet authentic view of the human person and the extraordinary story of our creation as unrepeatable individuals. This 2-part workshop will give a basic overview of what Theology of the Body is and present strategies on how to talk about this topic.

*"Give the Lord glory and honor."

On October 22nd, we celebrate the pope who inspired the world! Born Karol Wojtyla, Pope John Paul II became the first-ever Polish pope. He came of age in the early 20th century and lived through both the Nazi and communist occupations of Poland. His resistance activities were cultural, operating an underground theater company and entering a secret seminary. He was ordained a priest in 1946 and later a bishop. He was elected pope in 1978. As pope, the interests that captured his heart as a young man continued -- his pastoral concern for young people, his philosophical emphasis on the human person, and his devotion to Mary and to the mercy of God.

St. John Paul II, pray for us!

The Gospel of Matthew

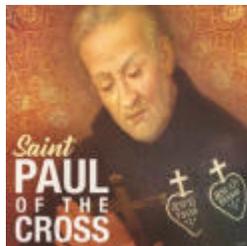

An Online 15-Segment Zoom Series
Presented by Deacon Jim McFadden
October 27, Tuesday, 7 pm
Contact: Theresa Grant
tgrant203@aol.com

Session 8:

Jesus and his students—the Disciples

Every teacher needs students; so, Jesus is going to gather them around him, who will carry out his Mission, once he is now longer physically with his followers. We are going to examine how Jesus calls his disciples and how they are to be in the world. This chapter (10) is a breakthrough image of what a disciple is. It forces us to ask what kind of disciple was Jesus himself because he life was about doing his Father’s will. Jesus is calling his students to participate in who he was; we’ll look at Chapter 10 as a description of Jesus himself.

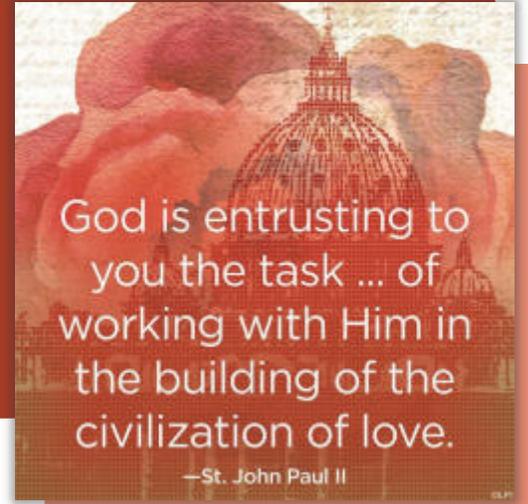

To register for the series, please email Theresa Grant. You will receive an email prior to the scheduled session with the Zoom online link & instructions. Please check your spam/junk mail in case you do not receive the email in your inbox.

Born in northern Italy in 1694, Paul Daneo lived at a time when many regarded Jesus as a great moral teacher but no more. After a brief time as a soldier, he turned to solitary prayer, developing a devotion to Christ’s passion. Paul saw in the Lord’s passion a demonstration of God’s love for all people. In turn that devotion nurtured his compassion and supported a preaching ministry that touched the hearts of many listeners. He was known as one of the most popular preachers of his day, both for his words and for his generous acts of mercy. In 1720, Paul founded the Congregation of the Passion, whose members combined devotion to Christ’s passion with preaching to the poor, and rigorous penances. Known as the Passionists, they add a fourth vow to the traditional three of poverty, chastity, and obedience, to spread the memory of Christ’s passion among the faithful. Paul was elected superior general of the Congregation in 1747, spending the remainder of his life in Rome.

Feast Day: October 20

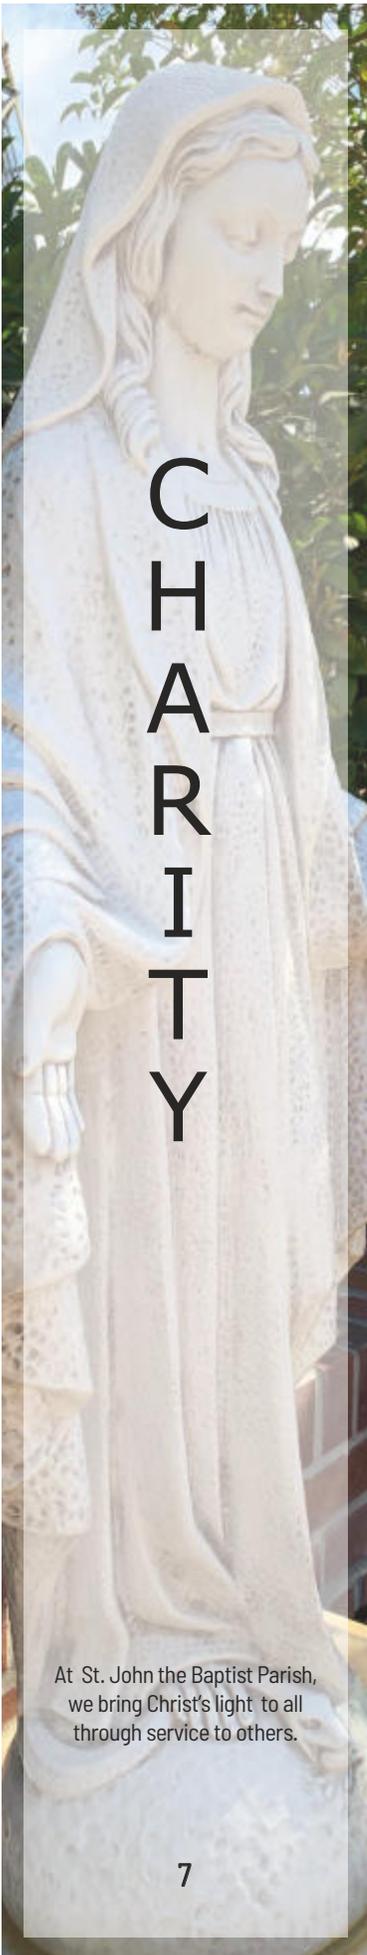

Chosen

It is getting close to Election Day and I suppose most of us have an idea of how we will cast our vote. We have tried to discern where candidates stand on important issues and what type of leader they might be if elected. However, there is a good chance that when we go into a voting booth, we will cast at least one vote for a person who we never heard of and to do a job we do not understand. We know the more notable people in the more notable contests, but some of those on the ballot as we get further into it? Who knew that was going to be on there?

In life we will at times be asked to make a choice about something or someone we know little about. Our choices will not always be as informed as we would like. Then, when we do know some information needed to make a choice, we still don’t know everything. We may support a candidate and not really know him or her personally.

When God chose you and me, He had all the information needed to make the choice. The crazy thing is He chose us anyway! He knew we would sin, turn our backs on Him, and sometimes not be very good ambassadors for Him. However, He still chose us because He loves us. We are a chosen people. We are His own. I don’t know about you, but if given the chance I am not sure I would have chosen myself. I rejoice that God sees in me something that at times seems hidden to me.

Today, on World Mission Sunday, we respond, "Here I Am, Send Me," to our baptismal call to mission, and we offer, at the Eucharistic celebration, our prayers and our generous financial support, through the Society for Propagation of the Faith, to continue the mission of Jesus. Today we are "sent" out to witness to mission in the world through our prayers and sacrifices for our brothers and sisters around the world. As little as...

- $25 helps support a catechist for a month in remote Latin America
- $75 provides for the work of religious Sisters caring for orphaned children in Africa
- $100 assists families in sending their children to schools in Asia

As always, your prayers are your most treasured gift to the Missions. Your prayers and financial help, offered today, WORLD MISSION SUNDAY, support mission priests, religious Sisters and Brothers, and lay catechists who are Christ's witnesses to a world so in need of His healing, love, and peace.

Last weekend our 2nd collection was for our Building and Maintenance Fund. Together we collected $ 2211.

Next week, we will take up the Peter's Pence Collection, which unites us and Catholics around the world more closely with the Holy Father in two ways: it supports the structures of the Holy See through which the Pope governs the Church as well as his charitable efforts to assist victims of war, oppression, natural disasters, and others most in need. Please be generous.

The homeless being served at Loaves and Fishes were filled with gratitude for the sharing from our parish in September. Our collection is ongoing. You will find the designated cart in the church vestibule ready for your donations daily during open church hours (7:30am-4:30pm). Most requested items are cup-of-soups, peanut butter and cheese crackers, drink boxes and bottled water, oatmeal packets, breakfast and ntri-bars,, raisins and fruit cups. Peanut butter and jelly jars also appreciated for volunteers making sandwiches. All donations will be taken down October 28. Would you like to help drive?

Please call Cathy for details. Our Divine Mercy Ministry thanks you for your donations!

Inspiration for the Week

In the time of Jesus, a Roman coin bore the image of Caesar and it was precisely this coin that was returned to the emperor in the form of tax. What bears God's image? Scripture tells us that human beings are made in the likeness and image of God. In truth, however, all of creation, even the entire universe, is fashioned in the image of God! Everything radiates Divine Presence and the spark and essence of God's very life exists in all things. God breathes the life of Himself into all things. If we have to give back to civil authorities what speaks to them, then what do we give back to God? While the answer is simple, the implications are profound. We are asked to give back to God our very selves! Ultimately, all creation is in the process of returning to God and is on a journey of finding its final truth and essence in Him. As we continue that journey, all we have, all we are, all we see, and all we are responsible for must be offered back to Him. God is the beginning and the end of all things. Do our lives reflect this Divine allegiance?

KID'S CORNER

Sharing the Gospel

When you grow up and earn money, you will have to pay taxes. Taxes pay for many good things that keep us safe and healthy. When you grow up in your faith, you will want to give God some of the money you earn, because all you have is a gift from God.

✝️ Mission for the Week

Take care of God's world. Together as a family, clean up trash that's lying around in your neighborhood.

God, teach me to use money wisely so my community and my church can grow.

MINISTRIES

"Here am I, Lord;
I come to do your will."

Why Does the Church Have Different Liturgical Cycles?

While most Catholics know that the Church Year is divided into various seasons (e.g. Advent, Christmas, Ordinary Time, etc.), many are unaware that the one Church Year is not like the one that follows. While the main seasons and feasts are the same from year to year, the 3-year cycle for Sundays and the 2-year cycle for weekdays means that, as a general rule, the readings in the Lectionary that we hear at Mass will change from year to year, helping us to have a richer encounter with Sacred Scripture. Each new cycle begins with the beginning of the liturgical year, the First Sunday of Advent.

The reasoning behind this innovation is outlined in Sacrosanctum Concilium, the “Dogmatic Constitution on the Sacred Liturgy” of the Second Vatican Council: “The treasures of the bible are to be opened up more lavishly, so that richer fare may be provided for the faithful at the table of God’s word. In this way a more representative portion of the holy scriptures will be read to the people in the course of a prescribed number of years” (no. 51). This was fully achieved in 1969 when the new cycles of readings were approved by Pope Saint Paul VI.
