Welcome to

St. John the Baptist Catholic Church

We are a community where we welcome all as members of the Body of Christ.

We are welcoming, faithful, passionate, joyful, authentic,
sacramental, loving and charitable.

Today's Readings

Mal 3:1-4 / Ps 24:7, 8, 9, 10 [10b] / Heb 2:14-18 / Lk 2:22-40 or 2:22-32

Simeon blessed them and said to Mary his mother, "Behold, this child is destined for the fall and rise of many in Israel, and to be a sign that will be contradicted--and you yourself a sword will pierce--so that the thoughts of many hearts may be revealed."

- Lk 2:34-35

Gospel Meditation

"Now, Master, you may let your servant go in peace, according to your word, for my eyes have seen your salvation, which you prepared in the sight of all the peoples: a light for revelation to the Gentiles, and glory for your people Israel." Very often, having more light is not something we desire as it forces us to confront something we really do not want to see. There can be comfort found in darkness. It has an eerie sense of security to it. We do not have to challenge ourselves or be challenged and can simply exist in some fabricated state of self-fabricated blissfulness. Jesus came to bring light, and it is a light that is resisted by many and hated by some. It is a light that causes us to see things as they really are and not as we would want or need them to be.

It is no wonder then that Simeon boldly and honestly proclaims to Mary, "Behold, this child is destined for the fall and rise of many in Israel, and to be a sign that will be contradicted and you yourself a sword will pierce so that the thoughts of many hearts may be revealed." We have to take the Gospel message as it is and not just use those parts that are useful to us or more palatable. Taking Jesus at face value can and will lead to turmoil and dissention. Hearts will be pierced. Whether we like it, Jesus' proclamation of what the world God created really ought to look like has real and absolute social implications.

It has a lot to say about how we treat our brothers and sisters: spiritually, personally, economically, and globally. It has everything to do with the poor, the immigrant, the scared, the unborn, the vulnerable, the sick, and the broken. The light opens us to a challenging, table-turning experience that may not be something we want to see but shows us where we need to be.

Scripture Reflections

First Reading

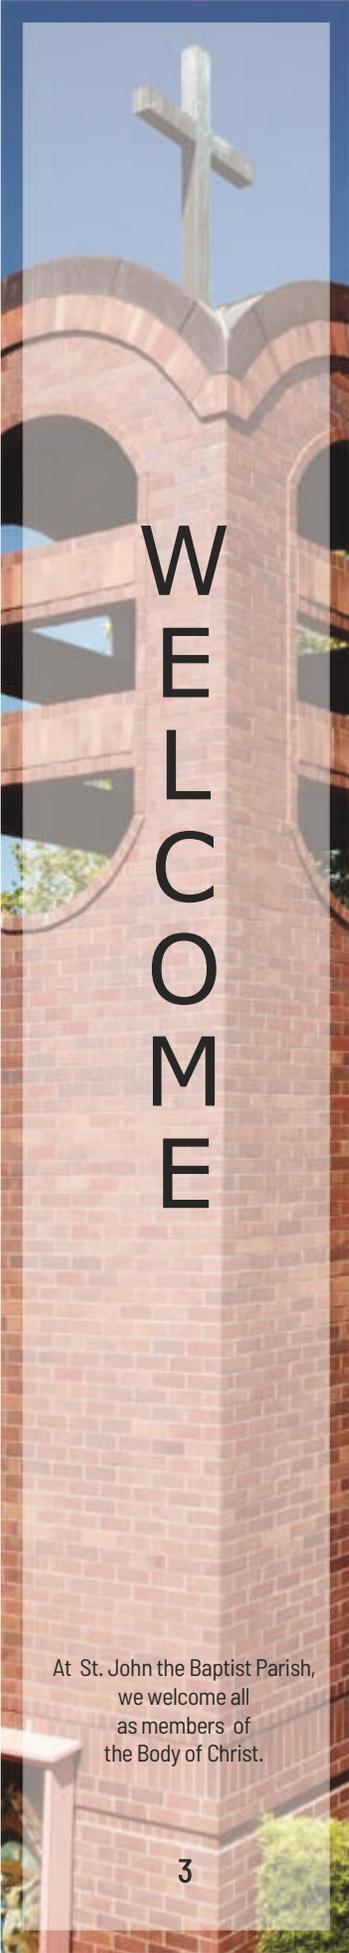

Four hundred years before the birth of Christ, the prophet Malachi spoke of "the messenger of the covenant" who would be sent to refine and purify the Jewish community. How would you assess the current state of your own faith community in terms of its refinement and purity?

Second Reading

The author of Hebrews writes that Jesus was like us "in every way," even being tested, suffering, and dying. In what ways are you most tested in your life?

Gospel Reading

Mary and Joseph receive further revelations about the infant Jesus during the Jewish presentation rite in the Jerusalem Temple. How do you imagine they supported each other with these revelations about Jesus?

At St. John the Baptist Parish,
we welcome all as members of the Body of Christ.

Respect Life Ministry

If someone takes a person's life after he or she is born, it's against the law; before birth (and even minutes before birth (in most states) it is legal to take that life because of the U.S. Supreme Court Roe v Wade decision in 1973. Abortion results in the death of a child. For many, abortion causes severe and long-lasting emotional, psychological, and spiritual trauma with other detrimental effects that have been documented.

For help, visit HopeAfterAbortion.org. So what are we to do? We love both mother and child! And we support them both during and after difficult pregnancies. Learn more at www.usccb.org/abortion

Prayer Requests

Prayer requests for the sick, military or recently deceased may be made by calling our Parish Office. Names will appear for four months.

For Mass intentions please visit the Parish Office to reserve a particular Mass time.

World Day for Consecrated Life

February 1-2

Please pray for those who have made commitments in the consecrated life, and be sure to thank them on their special day.

May they continue to be inspired by Jesus Christ and respond generously to God's gift of their vocation.

Inspiration of the Week

Today's celebration can be seen as another "epiphany" of sorts, whereby Jesus is recognized as the one who will fulfill the Jewish people's messianic expectations. Jesus is the one who comes to purify and refine humanity and provide us with proper direction and focus. Jesus also presents himself to each one of us. Will we accept him as he is or only as we want or need him to be? The Gospel message is meant to be heard whole and entire. When it is, it is always a very challenging, table-turning experience that can make even the holiest among us feel a bit uncomfortable. Being purified and refined never comes easy and requires that we give ourselves fully to God and His design. Are we willing to do so?

At St. John the Baptist Parish, time in conversation with our Lord is at the center of our lives.

A Journey Through the Parables, Part 2

January 20 - February 17, Mondays, 7pm
Gallagher Hall - St. John Paul II Room
Contact: Dcn Jim McFadden
macfam500@att.net

Join Deacon Jim this Monday for a faith-sharing experience as we reflect upon the inclusive call to the Great Banquet.

Feb 3 : “I Want my House to be Full”
Jesus uses the Banquet image to show how God treats his children; he invites everyone to the feast, not just the righteous and deserving, but the anawim as well, who seem to receive preferential treatment. God gathers the poor, blind, crippled, and lame. Indeed, Jesus extends his invitation beyond the boundaries of his own people to all the world. As a parish, do we do the same? Are we truly a universal, catholic, people?

Healing Our Blindness

The value of stewardship living is difficult to see unless we are experiencing that way of life for ourselves. You can read 100 Everyday Stewardship reflections and go to church every Sunday, but unless you are actively growing in faith and trying to live a life of generous stewardship, you cannot see the power of such a lifestyle. Like most things, we need direct, purposeful experiences to really understand.

I worked in a stewardship parish for over 20 years, but it was only after I started treating all I have as God's, and began to actively offer all I am to Him for His glory, that I really got the message. That doesn't mean I am a perfect steward. Far from it! However, the stress and anxiety that comes with life has greatly diminished because all is in God's hands. I choose to act more generously than before, which provides me with a sense of fulfillment and joy. How I act towards my family, friends, and even people I meet daily has changed. Now I am more mindful of their presence, and I seek to give them a part of me that just might change their day and bring them a little closer to Christ. I am transforming into a disciple who seeks to use all I have been given to transform all that is around me.

It would be a shame to be blind to the important things for an entire life. Today, consider taking a path of life-changing stewardship. Give it all to God. In the midst of all you have been given, you just might find God in a profound way. You may even find the real person God created you to be.

— Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

Sharing the Gospel

When Joseph and Mary brought baby Jesus to the temple, they dedicated Jesus to God. An old man named Simeon was also in the temple that day. As soon as Simeon saw and held baby Jesus, he praised God. He knew that Jesus was going to bring God's love to all people, including you.

Mission for the Week

Ask the Holy Spirit to show you how special Jesus is.

Prayer

God, I thank you for sending Jesus to save all people from sin.
