Welcome to

St. John the Baptist Catholic Church

We are a community where we welcome all as members of the Body of Christ.

We are welcoming, faithful, passionate, joyful, authentic,
sacramental, loving and charitable.

Today's Readings

Ex 32:7-11, 13-14 / Ps 51 3-4, 12-13, 17, 19 / 1 Tm 1:12-17 / Lk 15:1-32 or 15:1-10

"Rejoice with me because I have found my lost sheep.' I tell you, in just the same way there will be more joy in heaven over one sinner who repents than over ninety-nine righteous people who have no need of repentance."

- Lk 15:6c-7

Gospel Meditation

"Tax collectors and sinners were all drawing near to listen to Jesus, but the Pharisees and scribes began to complain..." In this Sunday's Gospel, we learn the context for the forthcoming parables about the lost and found. A great mixed crowd surrounds Jesus. The religious elite are present, along with all manner of local lowlives. The Pharisees seem a bit upset that this wasn't the lecture series they were hoping for. Why would Jesus welcome sinners?

Jesus responds as if it's the most obvious thing in the world. "Rejoice with me because I have found my lost sheep ... rejoice because I have found the coin that I lost ... let us celebrate with a feast, because this son of mine ... was lost, and has been found!" Each of the parables features a dramatic example. Of 99 sheep, one has gone astray. Of 10 coins, one has gone missing. The welcomed son has previously been a covetous scoundrel. Jesus' point to the Pharisees is clear. If the Gospel really is "good news," if our faith really has the power to save, why wouldn't we want everyone drawing near? Why wouldn't we do everything in our power to eke out that possibility for every single person, no matter where they have wandered? After all, if this message is not of value to everyone, why is it of value to anyone?

Our Christian faith is not a matter of rule adherence for the perfectionist elite. In our own ways, each of us is the lost sheep, the prodigal son. There is no one who "has no need of repentance." The Church is a mixed crowd. And we are mixed people. And the Gospel has good news for each of us today! There is no one Jesus doesn't go after, no one he does not catch sight of "while ... still a long way off," no one to whom he does not run to embrace and welcome home.

Scripture Reflections

First Reading

Moses petitions God not to punish the Israelites for the apostasy of making a golden calf and worshipping it. Who should you pray for in your life who has gravely sinned?

Second Reading

Paul uses his own life as an example of the depths of divine mercy. Who do you know needs to hear this message of God's mercy?

Gospel Reading

God's love for us is reflected in the reaction of the Father's embrace of his lost (prodigal) son who has returned. When have you shown this depth of love to another?

At St. John the Baptist Parish, we welcome all
as members of the Body of Christ.

Please Register

Non-registered parishioners, we encourage you to register with our Church in order to enjoy the full benefits of our parish family. Use the on-line form at FolsomCatholic.org, pick up a registration form from one of our Ministers of Hospitality after Mass or call the Parish Office.

Part-time Janitor/Custodian

Contact: Jeroen Smit at 916-985-2065 or jsmit@folsomcatholic.org

St. John the Baptist Church in Folsom is seeking two dependable and industrious parish custodians. The schedule is for 18 hours per week per person, preferably in the evenings, including occasional week-ends.

Ideal applicants must be someone dedicated to the proper maintenance and cleanliness of the worship space and associated buildings. They need to be able to pass a background check. Previous experience with commercial cleaning products and equipment, such as an auto scrubber and soil extractor, is preferred.

Please contact Jeroen Smit during regular business hours, 8:30 am to 4:30 pm.

Book of Prayer Intentions

The book has been moved to the Vestibule of the Church for easier access.

Pulpit Announcements

Please note all pulpit announcements for weekend Masses must be submitted by Friday at 1 pm.

New Parishioners and Visitors

If you would like more information about our parish please visit our website at FolsomCatholic.org. There you can register on-line, peruse our ministry page and also contact the New Parishioner Welcoming Ministry.

Thank You !

The Knights of Columbus held its annual Aloha Festival on Saturday, August 17, 2019 in Gallagher Hall from 5:00pm to 10:00pm. We prepared and cooked many Hawaiian, Filipino, and American dishes to share with all of our guest attending the festival in the traditional buffet style.

After dinner our program started with a special guest of ukulele players, with a couple of our St. John parishioners, from the "Ho'okano Ukulele Group under the direction of Keoki Gordon. We also added a program for our Keiki (children) Activities which included "face painting", "video games", "shark toss", "ping pong toss" and a "fishing game" in the St. John room.

The main entertainment "Hui O' Hawaii o Sacramento, Dance Group, under the direction of Auntie Mona Foster, Auntie Vicky Hakari and Auntie Patty Paddila along with all of their dancers performed traditional Hula, Maori and Tahitian dances. We also sang our traditional "Hawaii Aloha" at the end of both Hawaiian programs for the evening. Traditionally, the last chorus is sung with hands raised above heads; the act of raising hands is especially important to advocates for the respect of our "aina" (land).

We also started our DJ dance music after the singing of "Hawaii Aloha", which was a great success, according to Father Cleetus, but he had to leave because of mass in the morning.

Our Aloha Festival Ohana and I would like to thank Father Reneir, Father Cleetus, Father Harran, our Deacons, Parish Office Staff, Parish Ministries, Brother Knights and their families, our Parishioners and local community for supporting our 10th annual Pacific Islander Aloha Festival and Scholarship Fundraiser event which was a success and we promise to make it even better next year August 2020.

Gratitude turns what we have into enough and more. It turns denial into acceptance, chaos into order, confusion into clarity. . . it makes sense of our past, brings peace for today and creates a vision for tomorrow.

Yours in Christ,
Mahalo and Aloha,

SK Percy Park,
Knights of Columbus

Observances

We Celebrate This Week

Mon: Sts. Cornelius and Cyprian

Tue: St. Robert Bellarmine

Thu: St. Januarius

Fri: Sts. Andrew Kim Tae-gon &

Paul Chong Ha-sang, & Companions

Sat: St. Matthew

Before he was a follower of Jesus, Matthew had a more notorious profession: tax collector. To support their empire, the Romans taxed those they had conquered. They recruited locals for this unpleasant task. The tax collectors weren't paid well and were notorious for over-charging their fellow countrymen and skimming off the top. Let's just say Matthew would not have been voted "Most Religious" in his graduating class! But Jesus sees Matthew's heart and calls him anyway. No matter our profession, we are called to act with Christian virtues of justice and charity. Our workplace can be the place where we encounter God in our coworkers and customers. It can be the place where we can show the love of Christ to those we meet. St. Matthew, pray for us!

Inspiration of the Week

We all struggle with worshipping things that are not God. These are things that we place in our lives and reverence more than God himself. Things such as our self
-image, power, status, possessions, securities, and even ideologies can be allowed to make great claims on us.
Sometimes, who "god" is for us is what we make this "god" out to be. Our self-constructed gods serve little purpose, other than placating us and making us feel better about ourselves and our world.
This is not the God of Abraham, Isaac,
and Jacob, nor the God whom Jesus called Father. The true God challenges us out of our comfort zones and pushes us to discover our potential. But, He does so patiently and with great love. He knows how fickle we can be and is always eager to welcome us home.

Reach Out in Love Everyday Stewardship

St. Francis De Sales said, "Have patience with all things, but, first of all with yourself." Life has a way of knocking us down or off the path we are traveling. If it is a path that God has called us to, then it will be easier to get back to the journey, but nevertheless, it is difficult. The hardest thing to bear is that too often what we blame on life is really about our own choices or shortcomings. The refrain of many a blues singer sounds something like, "Nobody to blame but me!"

What is the Good News? God's patience is far superior to our own. We do need to follow the words above and cultivate in ourselves a greater sense of patience in all things. However, we should take great comfort in knowing that God's patience will always be there as we struggle to grow and advance in our life as a disciple.

You're trying to live a stewardship way of life but keep falling onto the side of the road? God wants you to reach Him on the road but will wait for you. You want to be holier and more committed to your faith? God will take what you give Him. The danger is when you lose your patience and stop moving toward Him. You decide that it doesn't really matter and that what you can offer God doesn't amount to anything of worth. We must never cease our journey. You and I may get fed up, but our God never will.

— Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

KID'S CORNER

"Let the little children come to me, and do not hinder them, for the kingdom of God belongs to such as these."

Sharing the Gospel

Jesus was kind to people who were lonely. Jesus forgave people who were sorry for their mistakes. Jesus ate dinner with people who needed God's love. They sinned. Everybody knew it. But Jesus knew that God's love could turn their frowns into smiles. If there are kids in your class who don't have many friends, be kind to them like Jesus. When other kids make mistakes, forgive them like Jesus. You'll make Jesus smile.

Dear God, help me to show kindness like Jesus did.

When you go outside to play at school, look for someone who is alone. Offer to be a friend and play together.

Announcing The Independent Compensation Program

ICP

CaliforniaDiocesesICP.com

This Monday afternoon, September 16, the Independent Compensation Program (ICP) will begin accepting registrations. The Diocese of Sacramento is joining those in Los Angeles, Fresno, Orange, San Bernadino and San Diego in a program that brings compensation and justice to those who were sexually abused as minors by diocesan priests. All claims, regardless of how long ago they may have occurred, will be considered by the program. The ICP is independent, outside the control of any diocese. For more information, including how to submit a claim, please visit CaliforniaDiocesesICP.com.

Let us always remember to pray for the victims of priest sexual abuse. As their pain is ongoing, so must our prayers for them be.

Fr. Augustus Tolton Play

September 22 - 26

For play locations through out the Diocese & tickets visit scd.org/tolton

As our diocese continues to reflect on Open Wide Our Hearts, we invite you to attend Tolton: From Slave to Priest, which tells the heroic story of venerable Fr. Augustus Tolton, the first African American Catholic priest. The play is a powerful multi-media live production, filled with music, drama and inspiring performances. It brings a message of hope and healing for the wounds that plague our culture. The play is suitable for ages 10 & up.
