Welcome to

St. John the Baptist Catholic Church

We are a community where we welcome all as members of the Body of Christ.

We are welcoming, faithful, passionate, joyful, authentic, sacramental, loving and charitable.

Today's Readings

Ex 17:3-7 / Ps 95:1-2, 6-7, 8-9 / Rom 5:1-2, 5-8 / Jn 4:5-42 or 4:5-15, 19b-26, 39a, 40-42

*The Samaritan woman said to him, "How can you, a Jew, ask me, a Samaritan woman, for a drink?"
Jesus answered and said to her, "If you knew the gift of God and who is saying to you, 'Give me a drink,' you would have asked him and he would have given you living water."*

Jn 4:9a, 10

Gospel Meditation

We give the definition of ourselves over to so many things. We allow our society, friends, family, work, social groups, ethnicity, and even institutions define, classify, and color how we perceive ourselves. When we listen predominantly to the voices of others, we lose touch with what is happening within our own inner voice. If we listen carefully within, we can easily discover that we are in want and need. We know our incompleteness and also know that loneliness, sadness, and self-images can propel us outward in attempts to fill those gaps. We can become not only victims of our own prejudices but can find ourselves overly self-indulgent in things that can only satisfy for a short time, if at all.

It is no wonder that money and power are things that are so fervently sought after. As long as we can keep a steady supply going, the illusion of fulfillment and satisfaction can falsely persuade us as craftily as a master magician's act. We live with illusions not truth. It is no wonder, then, that some of the wealthiest folks are also really the unhappiest. Whether we admit it, the lies we live and pursue will ultimately expose our superficiality. We all have to wrestle with who we are and what gives our lives purpose and meaning. Learn to listen more deeply, not to what others are saying about you, but to what God is echoing in your heart.

We can easily get confused and misunderstand, not only about who we are but who God is. Even the disciples and the Samaritan woman at the well missed the point Jesus was trying to make.

There is only one Person who can satisfy the deepest yearnings and longings of our hearts — Jesus the Messiah. It is not the work of corporate America that will lead us to happiness or greatness but the work of the soul. We continue to resist acknowledging this and are happier in our world of misunderstanding and illusion. The life-giving water we truly need doesn't come from the source of a well but from the Source of Life. Only God can reveal the truth of our sinfulness, the superficiality of our pursuits, and the illusions we hold so dear. Only Jesus can save us from ourselves and give us what we really need. If only our heads can catch up with where our hearts know they need to be, then will we find real contentment and life!

Scripture Reflections

First Reading

Early in their 40-year desert journey, the frustrated Israelites tested God by grumbling to Moses, "Is the Lord in our midst or not?" How do you see our contemporary society testing God today?

Second Reading

Paul speaks boldly of the "peace of God" and the "love of God" achieved through Jesus' willingness to die for us. How has your Lenten journey exposed you to the peace and love of God?

Gospel Reading

Jesus revealed himself as the Messiah to the Samaritan woman. Why do you think Jesus chose her for this revelation?

Altar Floor Refinishing

The wooden floor around the altar will be refinished. Work is scheduled from March 16 -20. Mass during this time will be held in the church chapel. Thank you for your patience.

Reminder

With growing concerns about the Corona virus it's important that we continue to be vigilant about taking precautions against the spread of disease.

Inspiration of the Week

"Is the Lord in our midst or not?" Have you ever found yourself asking this question? Finding God's presence and truly encountering God are not always easy tasks. When we seek God only with our minds, we risk reducing God to simply an idea rather than meeting him as someone who is real and actually present to us. We all have to wrestle with who we are and what gives our lives purpose and meaning. We can often get confused and misunderstand not only who we are, but who God is. Even the disciples and the Samaritan woman at the well missed the point Jesus was trying to make. There is only one person who can satisfy the deepest yearnings and longings of our hearts. Only Jesus can lead us to truth and provide the water that can quench our thirst. Each of us, not only with our heads but with our hearts, must come to see that Jesus is the Savior of the world. It is only when we can honestly make this confession that we will know God is truly present.

March 16: Let the Water of Christ Fill your Bucket

This Sunday we have the great privilege of hearing the story of the woman at the well, the definitive text on Christian evangelization. Take the time this week for a prayerful reading of this story and notice that as this woman seeks, she's already been found! If only we would surrender to our God who is already always pursuing us! Then, we might realize how the Everlasting Lord is the only one who can quench the otherwise unquenchable thirst of our hearts. Make the effort this Lent to clear a path and set down your old buckets so that the water of Christ's divine life can flow through you

The 6 Characteristics of an Everyday Stewardship for Lent – Grateful

On special days like birthdays, Christmas, and anniversaries, it is good to celebrate. After all, we need some fun and celebration in our lives.

But what about the day after? Presents remain, but the presence of others may be over, and it is back to the daily grind. Yesterday, you were filled with gratitude. You hold the memory of yesterday still close so that fuels you for the day. However, how about 2, 3, or 4 days from then? The truth is that many joys in this life cannot stay with us forever. They belong to a certain place in time. We will have our memories, yet those thoughts will never be a suitable substitute for the real thing.

There is one joy that remains throughout all our days: the joy we find in Jesus. What he gives us does not fade. The amazing thing about what he offers us is that it also provides a lens through which we see all things. Now we can see the smallest reasons to be grateful. We no longer have a life where we go from one celebration to another with the ordinary in between. All life and time are extraordinary! All gifts, great and small, are precious. This offering seems too good to be true, so what's the catch? Like all gifts given to us, for the gift to have meaning, we must be willing to receive it. The choice is yours. You can live in the ordinary, or you can revel in the extraordinary, now and forever.

A Big St. Vincent de Paul Thank You!

This is an overdue thank you for the support received by St. Vincent de Paul in 2019. Your donations of food, clothing and financial have been very generous. And this includes the nonperishable food donations and the coats and jackets collected through the Knights of Columbus. You made Thanksgiving better for our families with your donations of turkeys, hams and sides as well as financial. And Christmas was brighter with ham donations and the response to our Giving Tree. We provided gifts for over 250 children. We also thank our Cub Scout troops and our St. John Notre Dame students, staff and families for their food drives and donations. We are grateful to Trader Joe's, Safeway, El Pollo Loco, Chipotle, and Twin Lakes Food Bank for their donations. Lastly, we are grateful for our volunteers - for their "time" and "talent" - and for the support of Father Renier, Father Cleetus and Father Haran. We look forward to your continued support in 2020. God bless you and your families.

Win a Trip to Hawaii and Support St. Vincent de Paul

St. Vincent de Paul is selling raffle tickets for a trip to Hawaii. Tickets are $10 each and will be sold in the vestibule after all of the Masses this weekend and next. Drawing will be held on April 24th at the Annual Benefit Dinner for the Poor. Ticket sales will benefit those in need. Thank you for your support.

"Above all, I urge the members of the Church to take up the Lenten journey with enthusiasm, sustained by almsgiving, fasting and prayer. If, at times, the flame of charity seems to die in our own hearts, know that this is never the case in the heart of God!

He constantly gives us a chance to begin loving anew."

~Pope Francis

KID'S CORNER

"Let the little children come to me, and do not hinder them, for the kingdom of God belongs to such as these."

Sharing the Gospel

Jews didn't usually like the people from Samaria, let alone visit one of their towns or talk to any of them. Men didn't usually talk to women back then, either. When Jesus talked to the woman at the well, Jesus broke those silly rules. Jesus saw into the woman's heart and knew that she needed God in her life. Jesus came to rescue her from her sin. She was so happy that she invited everyone in her town to meet Jesus, too.

Prayer

Dear God, thank you for caring about me, no matter where I live, and no matter what I have done wrong.
