Welcome to

St. John the Baptist Catholic Church

We are a community where we welcome all as members of the Body of Christ.

We are welcoming, faithful, passionate, joyful, authentic, sacramental, loving and charitable.

Today's Readings

Am 6:1a, 4-7 / Ps 146:7, 8-9, 9-10 [1b] / 1 Tm 6:11-16 / Lk 16:19-31

"But Abraham replied, 'They have Moses and the prophets. Let them listen to them.' He said, 'Oh no, father Abraham, but if someone from the dead goes to them, they will repent.' Then Abraham said, 'If they will not listen to Moses and the prophets, neither will they be persuaded if someone should rise from the dead.'" - Lk 16:29-31

Gospel Meditation

If you saw someone dead come to life tomorrow, what would you change about your life? Would you say "nothing"? That's what Jesus seems to hope. After all, we already know what to do. In this Sunday's Gospel, a rich man and a poor man pass away, the former to damnation and the latter to peaceful rest alongside the Jewish patriarchs. The rich man asks if the poor man can appear to his brothers and advise them to live a more virtuous life. The parable offers a strong rebuke: "They have Moses and the prophets. Let them listen to them." In other words, they should already know what to do.

We, too, know what to do. More than Moses, Jesus Christ himself has spoken, and continues to speak through his Church. The rich man did not heed the wise words, despite knowing them. If we are convicted against certain Christian teachings in our heart, how much good will miraculous "proofs" do? We know more than the law and the prophets — we know the prophetic law of love proclaimed by Jesus Christ. Are we living like we believe it?

Where in our lives are we like the rich man? Do we know how to treat the poor but still we ignore them in our excess? Do we know the third commandment, but the Sunday liturgy feels "optional" when other weekend commitments arise? Have we heard Christ's teachings on sexuality, but consider them out of reach for us? We have received a great many truths as Christian people. We are blessed by God with the sacraments and the abundance of His graces. We have what we need — in Him — to begin to live a virtuous life now.

Scripture Reflections

First Reading

The prophet Amos warns of the dangers of complacency. When do you find yourself falling into this trap?

Second Reading

Paul encourages Timothy to "compete well for the faith." What or who do you see as the main competitors today with our Christian faith?

Gospel Reading

In the parable of the rich man and Lazarus, Jesus teaches the Pharisees of the great reversal of fortunes in the afterlife. Do you find comfort or distress in this parable?

At St. John the Baptist Parish,
we welcome all as members of the Body of Christ.

The Gift of Our Guardian Angels

It's good to know we're not alone. This October 2nd we celebrate the feast of our guardian angels. This ancient belief has roots in Scripture. In Matthew's Gospel, Jesus implies the special guiding care of the angels. "See that you do not despise one of these little ones, for I say to you that their angels in heaven always look upon the face of my heavenly Father" (Matthew 18:10). Our guardian angels are given to us by God to protect and watch over us from the moment of our conception until the hour of death.

Let's pray together to our own heavenly help:

*Angel of God, my guardian dear,
to whom God's love commits me here,
ever this day be at my side to light,
to guard, to rule, and to guide.
Amen.*

At St. John the Baptist Parish,

Lord is at the center of

Susan Money, 530-320-1614

Yes, we should pray from home. And yes, we should pray at church. But if we want to serve mothers in crisis, we need to go where they are. It's the presence and peaceful witness of Christians in the public square that have led more than 16,000 moms to turn away from abortion at the very last moment and choose life. Showing up matters. Please help! Carpools from St. John's available on Wednesdays, call Joanne 916-607-2228 for more information.

Inspiration of the Week

People often think that if they witness something miraculous, it would bring them to a greater faith and motivate them for greater involvement. Such is not necessarily true, as coming to a real and authentic faith still requires that we struggle with ourselves a bit and change our approach to living. Authentic faith is acquired when we see wisdom and life in the words of the prophets and in the teachings of Jesus Christ. All of these point us to a God who has a particular set of priorities for how life is meant to be lived. We have to avoid the trap of complacency that is rooted in preserving our own self-interests and living lives that pursue "righteousness, devotion, faith, love, patience, and gentleness." (1 TM 6: 11) Complacency keeps us stuck in the status quo and prevents us from working toward respect for life, equality, and justice, and from advocating on behalf of the needs of the poor, the homeless, and the alien. Are you complacent?

A Journey Through the Parables, Part 1

October 7, Monday, 7:00 pm
Gallagher Hall - St. John Paul II Room
Deacon Jim McFadden
macfam500@att.net

Join Deacon Jim McFadden for this 5-part faith-sharing experience as we reflect upon the universal truths of the Kingdom of God. Please note each topic is independent of each other.

Topic 1: What and Why (an Introduction)
Why did Jesus tell parables as his favorite form of teaching? Stories are easier to understand than abstract lessons. Pope Benedict XVI said that they make universal truths accessible. So, a parable is a bridge that enables one to arrive at something out-of-reach to something that is now understood.

What's Most Important?

Everyday Stewardship

What does a homeless person need? That may seem like an odd question since being homeless would indicate they certainly need a home. Beyond that though, what does a homeless person need? Most would guess the person needs food, money, clothing, medical care, and toiletries. Many parishes put together drives for those items. Is that all the person needs? It is easy to get caught up in all the things that easily come to mind so that we miss a key thing needed by someone homeless as well as all human beings: to be seen.

How many of us pass by homeless people and pretend they are not even there. We don't have money in our pocket, we don't have food to give, and we don't have material items that they need, so we offer them nothing. We don't even offer ourselves.

Welcoming someone with a kind word is free. Amazingly, we act like it costs us more than anything else. It is easier to hand someone $5 than it is to engage in a 15-second exchange of words. We talk about being generous, but we need to remember that sometimes the greatest gift we have to give is simply ourselves. The Jesus in me meets the Jesus in you. One day, you or I may find ourselves in a tough spot, and we will be looking for compassion. Let's hope that all those who profess to know Jesus don't simply pass on by pretending not to see us.

Sharing the Gospel

Today Jesus told a story about a selfish rich man who ignored God and refused to share with other people. All his money did him no good when he died. He didn't go to heaven. He had his whole life to learn about God, and he could have helped many people with his money. Instead, he forgot about God. He wasted his riches and bought a lot of nice things for himself. Learn from the rich man. Live for God, not for money.

Connect the dots.

Use four jars to save your money, and label them GOD, GIVE, SAVE, and SPEND. Use the money from the first two jars to share with God and others. Use the money in the last two jars for yourself.

Dear God, help me to share the things you have given me. I love you more than money.

"Let the little children come to me, and do not hinder them, for the kingdom of God belongs to such as these."
