Welcome to

St. John the Baptist Catholic Church

We are a community where we welcome all as members of the Body of Christ.

We are welcoming, faithful, passionate, joyful, authentic, sacramental, loving and charitable.

Today's Readings

Hb 1:2-3; 2:2-4 / Ps 95:1-2, 6-7, 8-9 [8] / 2 Tm 1:6-8, 13-14 / Lk 17:5-10

"Is he grateful to that servant because he did what was commanded? So should it be with you. When you have done all you have been commanded, say, 'We are unprofitable servants; we have done what we were obliged to do.'"

- Lk 17:9-10

Gospel Meditation

"When you have done all you have been commanded, say 'We are unprofitable servants; we have done what we were obliged to do.'" The metaphor in the story could seem harsh to us today. A servant has worked hard all day, and rather than receiving a much-needed respite, the master commands an additional task. Jesus, however, is appearing to their sensibilities. This was a hierarchical society in which everyone had a place. His listeners would know this. No servant would presume a reward for good deeds.

It's important to remember that we do have a place at God's table. But we don't "earn" it. Dining with the Lord at the heavenly wedding feast requires surrender. It requires deep faith in God and His promises. It also requires commitment. The kingdom takes work! There are fields to plow and initiatives to prepare. There are sheep to tend to and family to care for. There are people waiting for our yes to generous service. When we serve dinner at a homeless shelter, we are waiting on the table of Christ. When we visit an ill relative, we're imitating the Good Samaritan. We're visiting Jesus! We're growing his kingdom of life and love.

The Gospel today reminds us to check our motives. Are we serving because we're seeking a reward? Or because we have faith that this is who we're meant to serve? That is, is this where we're meant to be? The Gospel reminds us that this faith can do powerful things! "If you have faith the size of a mustard seed, you would say to this mulberry tree, 'Be uprooted and planted in the sea,' and it would obey you." But, ultimately, we're not the ones doing the deeds. We're not the ones "earning" the grace. Faith, and the good we do for others, is a gift.

Scripture Reflections

First Reading

The prophet Habakkuk sought answers from the Lord to the sufferings of his times. Habakkuk was encouraged to seek answers through the lens of faith. How does your faith help you sort through the social discord of our times?

Second Reading

Paul opens his letter to his co-worker Timothy urging him to pass on the faith without hesitation. What gives you pause to share your faith with others?

Gospel Reading

In the apostles' request to "increase our faith," Jesus emphasizes the importance of service. In what ways does your service to others reflect what you believe?

WELCOME

At St. John the Baptist Parish, we welcome all
as members of the Body of Christ.

Priests' Convocation

Please be aware that the priests of the Diocese of Sacramento will be away this week. Bishop Soto has convoked a convocation of the Presbyterate of the Diocese of Sacramento to take place October 7-11. Please Note: Morning Masses will be celebrated here at St. John's during this time. Please keep the priests of our Diocese in your prayers. May they find rejuvenation in their ministries, receive the blessing of our Lord and the guidance of the Holy Spirit.

Urgent Need

Sunday Coordinators:

danieljdunne1943@gmail.com
Tuesday Coordinator:
Candice Ralston 916-806-8090
cr-brc@comcast.net

Will you give a little time to bring Communion to our parishioners who are home bound or living in senior communities? We serve about 140 parishioners every week. We need about 20 more people to meet the growing need and minister two by two, like Jesus sent out his disciples. Please say yes to this call to serve.

Theology on Tap

Contact: Danielle Leyva
dleyva@FolsomCatholic.org

We are still in need of volunteers to establish a Core Team for our monthly Theology on Tap series. This will require working with the Director of Faith Formation on scheduling a speaker, gathering supplies, assisting in set up/tear down, assisting in facilitating the evening, and helping with Childcare as needed. This team will need to consist of seven volunteers. Theology on Tap will resume once we can establish a core team.

Pray for Life: October 2019 Respect Life Sunday

From the time we are knit together in our mothers' wombs until we take our final breaths, each moment of our lives is a gift from God. While every season of life brings its own challenges and trials, each season also gives us opportunities to grow in relationship with Him. As new attacks on human life continue to emerge, we might be tempted to despair, but Christ instead offers us unfailing hope.

Christ's promise of salvation does not mean that we will be spared from suffering, but rather that even in the darkest moments of our lives, we will be given the strength to persevere. For this reason, a woman experiencing a difficult pregnancy can find the strength to welcome her precious child into the world. A man facing a terminal diagnosis can see that the end of his earthly life is the beginning of eternal life with Christ. When the seas of life swell and we are battered by the waves, hope allows us to remain anchored in the heart of God. May we hold fast to Christ, our hope, from the beginning of life to its very end.

A Journey Through the Parables, Part 1

October 7, Monday, 7:00 pm
Gallagher Hall - St. John Paul II Room
Deacon Jim McFadden
macfam500@att.net

Join Deacon Jim McFadden for this 5-part faith-sharing experience as we reflect upon the universal truths of the Kingdom of God. Please note each topic is independent of each other.

Topic 1: What and Why (an Introduction)
Why did Jesus tell parables as his favorite form of teaching? Stories are easier to understand than abstract lessons. Pope Benedict XVI said that they make universal truths accessible. So, a parable is a bridge that enables one to arrive at something out-of-reach to something that is now understood.

through service to others.

Second Collection

Thank You to those who contributed to last Sunday's second collection for St. Vincent de Paul. Together we collected $13,633. Second collection today will be for SJND and our RE Program.

Next weekend we will begin the 2nd collection for our Maintenance Fund. This collection will take place on the 2nd Sunday of the month. Envelopes for this fund will be in the pews. You are free to use these and add them to the regular collection on any Sunday. All funds collected via these envelopes will go directly to the support of our aging facilities, and will only be used for that specific purpose. You can also donate to this fund through our website by following the links under "GIVE". Please Note: For all 2nd collections, if you are writing a check please specify "2nd collection" in the check memo section. We thank you for your continued support of our parish.

Inspiration of the Week

All of the violence and unrest we regularly witness in our world can easily distress us. We can also find ourselves wondering how long it will take before God intervenes and does something about it. Then we remember our call to discipleship and spreading the Good News of the Gospel. We recall the persecutions the early disciples endured and the fate of so many martyrs throughout history, both past and present. It is not God's responsibility to fix our mess but ours. God has given us the power of love and a strength of endurance that comes from Him alone. Our request of God becomes that of the disciples: "Increase our faith." It is our task to stand up for the values of the Gospel and live them regardless of the price.

Sharing the Gospel

Being part of a family means that everybody works together. Your parents work to give you a good place to live, food to eat, and clothes to wear. You probably help with jobs around the house, too, like picking up your toys, taking the garbage out, or setting the table. Each person in the family has work to do. The same is true in God's family. God has special work for us to do, especially to help others. Find happiness in your work.

Mission for the Week

If you know of people in your church who are very old or sick, talk to your family about ways to help them. You could rake leaves for them, help them clean their house, or bring them groceries. Help with a smile.
