Welcome to

St. John the Baptist Catholic Church

We are a community where we welcome all as members of the Body of Christ.

We are welcoming, faithful, passionate, joyful, authentic,
sacramental, loving and charitable.

Today's Readings

Sir 35:12-14, 16-18 / Ps 34:2-3, 17-18, 19, 23 / 2 Tm 4:6-8, 16-18 / Lk 18:9-14

"But the tax collector stood off at a distance and would not even raise his eyes to heaven but beat his breast and prayed, 'O God, be merciful to me a sinner.' I tell you, the latter went home justified, not the former; for whoever exalts himself will be humbled, and the one who humbles himself will be exalted." - Lk 18:13-14

Gospel Meditation

This Sunday's Gospel contrasts two different religious attitudes. First, the self-righteous Pharisee. Here is a man who seems to impeccably follow the law. In some terms, he is the model citizen! Honest, fiscally generous, and faithful to his marriage vows. But something else lurks in his heart: pride. "O God, I thank you that I am not like the rest of humanity ... or even like this tax collector." For the Pharisee, no fault can be admitted. The only way to stay on top is to preserve one's image — even to God, it seems! — and point out the flaws of others from the pedestal.

In the back of the temple, hidden and bowed down, is the tax collector. "O God, be merciful to me a sinner." This man's prayer is one of supplication and petition. He isn't afraid to express his sinfulness and misery. This, Jesus says, is the one who "went home justified." How many times have we heard the mission of Jesus to seek and save the lost? Jesus is the one who dines with sinners and invites every heart to repentance. But how can we return to him if we don't know we've left? How can we receive God's grace when we're adamant we don't need it?

We all have within us both the Pharisee and the tax collector. We want to be sure of ourselves and to be admired in the eyes of others. Yet we also know that we are not always what we wish to present to others. We can be preoccupied with our self-image and feel anxious about our flaws being exposed. Because we do have flaws, after all. We are the sinner in need of mercy. This Sunday, will we humble ourselves enough to ask for it?

Scripture Reflections

First Reading

The Jewish sage Sirach assures us that God hears the prayers of those who serve the Lord willingly. In what ways do you think you serve the Lord?

Second Reading

Toward the end of his letter to Timothy, Paul offers a self-assessment of his spiritual journey: "I have competed well; I have finished the race; I have kept the faith." How would you measure yourself against Paul's self-assessment?

Gospel Reading

In today's parable, Jesus contrasts the Pharisee with the tax collector in their approach to prayer. How would you advise someone to nurture a disposition of humility in prayer?

WELCOME

At St. John the Baptist Parish,
we welcome all

the Body of Christ.

*"When I was in prison, you visited me."
Matthew 25:36*

Join us on our weekly pilgrimage to pray with prisoners at various chapels at California State Prison Sacramento. Liturgy and communion service, centering prayer, Bridges to Life class, rosary, RCIA, and more. It is about our gift of presence and the grace we receive when we visit Jesus in prison.

We also need speakers, victims of crime burglary and murder, to speak to inmates on how the crime affected them, their family and the community for the Bridges to Life program.

Susan Money, 530-320-1614

Yes, we should pray from home. And yes, we should pray at church. But if we want to serve mothers in crisis, we need to go where they are. It's the presence and peaceful witness of Christians in the public square that have led more than 16,000 moms to turn away from abortion at the very last moment, and choose life. Showing up matters. Please help! Carpools from St. John's available on Wednesdays. Call Joanne 916-607-2228 for more information.

A Journey Through the Parables, Part 1

October 28, Monday, 7 pm
Gallagher Hall - St. John Paul II Room
Deacon Jim McFadden
macfam500@att.net

Join Deacon Jim McFadden for this 5-part faith-sharing experience as we reflect upon the universal truths of the Kingdom of God. Please note each topic is independent of each other.

Topic 4: The Prodigal Son

We will examine what Pope Benedict XVI called "Perhaps the most beautiful of Jesus' parables." In broad strokes the story reveals the nature of God who is Love and how we should relate to God and to each other. As we reflect upon this parable, do we appreciate that God has given us the greatest gift of all: "Everything I have is yours."

Inspiration of the Week

God's justice is not about seeing that people get what they deserve, good or bad, reward or punishment. God's justice is about the restoration and alignment of relationships: our relationship with God, one another, our very selves, and creation. Sin distorts relationships, and justice brings them back into focus. God's justice is all about taking responsibility for who we are and the relationships that are inherently a part of our lives. What happens to my brother or sister, God's created world, and myself are extremely important for me to consider and factor into my decision-making. We are called to the virtue of humility, to see ourselves as one among many not one over many. Cooperating so that the world operates as God intends is the order of business for the day.

CHARITY

At St. John the Baptist Parish,
we bring Christ's light to all
through service to others.

Second Collection

Thank you for answering your baptismal call to witness for mission on World Mission Sunday! Our parish offered $2473 to the Society for the Propagation of the Faith for the missionary work of the Church—a real blessing for the Missions! Please continue to pray for missionaries, and for the people to whom they bring the “Good News” of Jesus. May God bless you for your generous missionary spirit!

Next week our second collection will be for SJND and the RE program.

St. Vincent de Paul Thank You

We are grateful for your kind donations in support of St. Vincent de Paul. Last month's fifth Sunday second collection was $14,600. Your generosity makes it possible for us to continue to provide financial assistance for rent and utilities to those in need in our community. Funds are also used to stock the food pantry and provide mattresses if needed. Thank you again and may God bless you and your families.

Knights of Columbus Coats for Kids & Food For Families Programs

It's getting to be that time of year! Our collections for these programs will be starting in November. Please watch the bulletin for details on how you can help.

Training for the Race

If you were going to run a race, wouldn't you need to train? My wife is not a runner, but a few years back she wanted to participate in a race with my youngest son. She embarked on a journey which included a healthy diet, exercise, and a lot of running. After several months, she was ready. The race came and went but what remained was a sense of accomplishment. She would have never made it through that event if not for her training. When the time came, she was ready.

Our life in Christ is a race of sorts. It is not a race that starts and stops again and again, but one that continues from our baptism until eternal life with him (hopefully). Even though we never stop the race, we do have moments where we need to hydrate, take nourishment, and gain strength. That's what we do at the Mass and in our parish community. It is in our parish where we find what we need to keep running that race.

The problem is that too many assume we only are running the race when we are involved with the parish. Living out our discipleship in stewardship is not only to be done in the Church. In fact, what we do in the Church is to prepare us for what we are called to do during all the times we are not at Church. We encounter Christ in his Church so that we may bring him into a world that needs him. In community, we train and take nourishment so that we have any chance of running the race every day. Don't let your stewardship stop at the church doors. Outside those doors the race is on!

— Tracy Earl Welliver

Sharing the Gospel

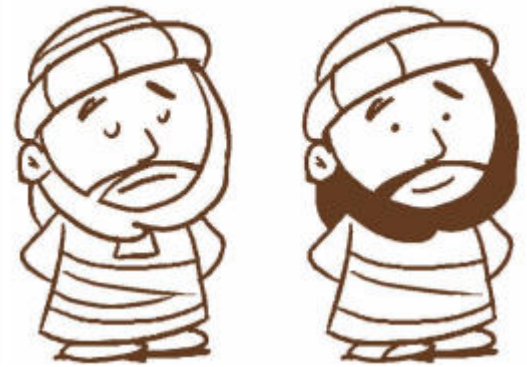

If you have ever thought that you were better than somebody else, you are not alone. Even grown-ups think that way sometimes. The truth is, you really are not better than anyone else. You sin. You make mistakes, just like other people do. No matter how big or how small you think your mistakes are, they still make God angry. Instead of looking down on other people, remember your own mistakes. Ask God to forgive you.

Dear God,
I am so sorry I ever thought I was better than anybody else.
Please forgive me.

Find 8 differences between the two pictures.

Ask everyone in your class to make cards for people in prison. Jesus knows when people are truly sorry for what they have done wrong. Jesus wants to forgive prisoners, just like he wants to forgive you.

"Let the little children
come to me, and do not hinder them, for the kingdom of God belongs to such as these."
