Today's Readings

Sir 15:15-20 / Ps 119:1-2, 4-5, 17-18, 33-34 [1b] / 1 Cor 2:6-10 / Mt 5:17-37 or 5:20-22a, 27-28, 33-34a, 37

"Again you have heard that it was said to your ancestors, 'Do not take a false oath, but make good to the Lord all that you vow.' But I say to you, do not swear at all.

Let your 'Yes' mean 'Yes' and your 'No' mean 'No.' "

Mt 5:33-34a, 37

Gospel Meditation

People are not property. We cannot exchange them at will or simply use them for our own designs and purposes. What does the word "commitment" mean to you? We can begin to understand its meaning by looking at some synonyms: dedication, devotion, allegiance, loyalty, faithfulness, fidelity, and bond. Commitment is primarily about relationship, and Jesus is all about relationships. How our lives affect others, how we treat our brothers and sisters, how we resolve conflict, and how we view the vows of marriage. Jesus' teachings on obeying the commandments, murder, reconciliation, marriage, divorce, and adultery all stem from the sacredness of commitment. All of this has a God connection.

We can easily see one another as interchangeable and dispensable. We treat so much of our lives this way. What works today may not be what I want tomorrow. We search and search for the right thing only to find our hearts still restless in the end. Is real happiness achievable this side of the grave? Sometimes we expect too much out of others and want our relationships to fill a hole that we must figure out how to fill ourselves. Any seasoned married couple will tell you that their love for one another changes as time passes. Even though the understanding of romance changes as life changes, the dedication, devotion, allegiance, loyalty, faithfulness, and fidelity all remain and even deepen.

Some relationships can be hurtful, and God does not want us to live with abuse or pain. Also, how a relationship develops is sometimes out of our control, and we become the victim of someone else's decision. But we can't be self-focused in our relationships and see them exclusively as self-fulfilling ends. We are companions on life's journey with varying depths of relationships being enjoyed by all who are with us along the way. We have the freedom to choose. God asks us to do so wisely, with right judgment and thinking.

Scripture Reflections

First Reading

The Jewish sage Sirach speaks of the wisdom in choosing to be obedient and loyal to God's will and commandments. Why do you think this is such a difficult choice for humans?

Second Reading

Paul encouraged the believers in Corinth to rely on God's wisdom rather than on the wisdom of the rules of this age. What human "wisdom" of our age should we be avoiding?

Gospel Reading

As Jesus continues with his Sermon on the Mount, he addresses a variety of topics with his disciples — the Law, anger, adultery, divorce, and oaths — all of which were part of daily life. How can you challenge yourself and others to live to these divine standards?

they will be seen as "salt of the earth" and "light of the world" and thereby "glorify your heavenly Father." How do you think this glorifies God?

Our Pastoral Care Tuesday Ministry provides the Eucharist along with the Gospel/Meditation to our homebound both in their own home or in managed care homes. We service a number of facilities in addition to providing MASS at four of them when possible. Requirements include:

- Attending mandatory 9am meetings on Tuesdays each week.
- Commitment of 3-3.5 hours per week.
- All training is provided and consist of all basic material. You will "shadow" an existing Pastoral Care Minister until you are comfortable to service the homebound.
- We do offer a "calendar" each week so you may sign out for vacations or any other situation.

Thank you for your time and consideration. It is very much needed within our community. Other than above, all you need are a nature of caring, compassion, and a smile.

Inspiration of the Week

One of the greatest and most necessary gifts God gives us is free will. We always have the ability to choose. Life or death and good or evil are two of the core decisions every human being must make. We can choose to love and choose whether to pursue a relationship with God. True salvation comes when we make the choices that keep us focused on God and God's commandments. How we view others reveals what choices we have made. People are not property, and they are not dispensable. We cannot exchange them at will or use them for our own self-serving ends. For this reason, God holds high the commitment of marriage and the integrity of all of our relationships. This is the basis of God's teaching on forgiveness and reconciliation, and the reason adultery is prohibited.

At St. John the Baptist Parish, time in conversation with our Lord is at the center of our lives.

A Journey Through the Parables, Part 2

Contact: Dcn Jim McFadden
macfam500@att.net

Join Deacon Jim this Monday for the final segment of A Journey Through the Parables. Feb 17: “The Man God Helped”
The story of the Rich Man and Lazarus is clearly one of judgment. Again and again, the Gospel shows us that the anawim—the meek, poor, neglected—are especially important to God. Those who are ostracized and persecuted because of their faith in the Son of Man receive their unbelievably Great Reward. That is the Gospel proclaimed by this parable, which is the Good News.

Don’t Live a Lie

One day, my son was explaining to his mother that he felt she had lied to him. It was nothing very important, but he wanted to take this opportunity to share how important telling the truth is to him. He explained that he simply tells it like it is in all aspects of his life. But an hour later, we caught him in a lie! Again, it was not about a matter of life and death, but it was a lie. When confronted with his own previous words on how important the telling the truth was to him, he just smiled. Yes, the guilty often have no words of defense.

Jesus said it best in Matthew 5: “Let your ‘yes’ mean ‘yes’ and your ‘no’ mean ‘no.’” He was warning his disciples about false oaths and then instructing them on the fullness of the Hebrew laws. We may try to do what we say and say what we mean, but it can be all too easy to fall short. We call ourselves disciples yet provide evidence to the contrary by our actions (or lack of them).

Even if we feel that we have lied to no one, we may have lied to ourselves. We portray ourselves as generous, thankful, and loving people, yet fail to answer God’s call in a situation because we perceive the cost to be too great. Jesus did not simply mean for his message to be about two words. He also meant that when you say you are a disciple, make sure you are a disciple as well. -Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

At St. John the Baptist Parish,
we bring Christ's light to all through service to others.

Second Collection

Thank you to those who contributed to our 2nd collection for the Building and Maintenance Fund last weekend. Total donations were $3363.

Annual Catholic Appeal

On the weekend of February 22, we will once again have the opportunity to walk with others as Jesus asks us to do. Together as Catholics, the Appeal is a way we can all help in a powerful way. Many of our sisters and brothers in the North State have endured catastrophic natural disasters. Others still struggle on the margins of communities. Let us remember them and that each of our gifts, no matter the amount, really do make a difference in someone's life. Remember 25% of what you give is returned to our parish to assist people in our own community who need help. Please prayerfully consider what you can give this year.

SJND Scrip Gift Cards

Shop for Scrip and keep in mind the 2 G's - Groceries and Gasoline! That's an easy way for you to support our Scrip program and donate to St. John Notre Dame School. You receive equal value for what you spend -- how easy is that? Stop by the table and check out the list before or after Mass!
